My original transformative experience included marveling at how Joyce in Ulysses perceived the contemporary world and his characters with reference to the context of prior cultures and myths. Stephen's and Bloom's odysseys on June 16, 1904 resonate with that of Homer's Telemachus and Odysseus, and Molly Bloom resonates with Homer's ...

Course description. James Joyce's Ulysses is the most admired novel of the twentieth century in English. In this course, we try to see why that is true by reading the book closely, chapter by chapter, looking at how Joyce made one story on one day in Dublin the universal story of how humane men and women prevail over the violence bent on destroying them.

Reading James Joyce's Ulysses | Harvard University

In many ways, Ulysses is a chameleon text, accommodating multiple interpretations while permitting infinite possibilities for discovery. Pedagogy, Praxis, Ulysses approaches Joyce's novel not simply as a text to be examined, but as a touchstone to generate theoretical and practical ideas for innovation in teaching.

Pedagogy, Praxis, Ulysses

Teaching Joyce's Ulysses models a new method of teaching Joyce's novel using the theory of fictional possible worlds, which envisions texts as producing fictional universes comprised of the "textual actual world" in which the characters live, and all the possible worlds generated by their perceptions, obligations, memories, desires and dreams.

Odysseus (v angl. orig. Ulysses) je román irského spisovatele Jamese Joyce. Jedná se o parafrázi Homérova eposu Odysseia, na nějž v mnoha paralelách odkazuje. Z dalších děl citovaných v Joyceově románu lze uvést např. Shakespearovu tragédii Hamlet či Mozartovu operu Don Giovanni, časté jsou rovněž citace a parafráze bible, různých liturgických textů, ale i irských ...
