Burgoo is Food for Comfort. Burgoo came to life because we believe everyone needs a little comfort and a place to enjoy some great comfort food. No matter what the season is, a tiny bit of comfort can go a long way to making someone's day more satisfying. We felt that creating an old-world, countryside ambience in our locations—through earth tones, natural finishes and materials—would harken back to a simpler time.

Burgoo is the place to go to when you're craving some real comfort food. Pretty much everything on their menu spells out dishes that warm and fill your belly like mac & cheese and chicken pot pie. They don't just focus on one region of cuisine either...they have Mexican, Thai, French, British, American, etc... as long as it's comfort food, you'll find it here.

If you're in need of comfort food, come to Burgoo. All my experiences at all the Burgoo locations have been lovely. When I think comfort food, I think something warm, gooey and cheesy. This usually leads me to getting their grilled cheese, los diablo, or mac & cheese about 99% of the time.

Burgoo is a small "comfort food" chain located around Vancouver, I've visited this location three times, and the Lonsdale Quay location five. First off the atmosphere is fantastic, it gives that community spot feeling but in a relaxing casual way. The Main st location however it does feel a bit cramped inside.
