Russian nationalism, the Russian version of nationalism, promotes the celebration and appreciation of Russian culture and history, as well as Russian cultural identity and unity. Russian nationalism first rose to prominence in the early 19th century, and became closely related to pan-Slavism, from its origin during the Russian Empire to the Soviet Union and beyond. Russian nationalism today, however, is either viewed as an ethnic-type nationalism, or multi-racial nationalism. The coat of arms of "God Save the Tsar!" (Russian: Боже, Царя храни!, tr. Bóže, Carjá hraní!, IPA: [ˈboʒ ˈt͡sɛrʲa xrɐˈnʲi]) was the national anthem of the Russian Empire and, for a time, the national anthem of the Principality of Bulgaria.The song was chosen from a competition held in 1833 and was first performed on 18 December 1833. It was composed by violinist Alexei Lvov, with ...
