Dream City: Vancouver and the Global Imagination ...

Vancouver has emerged as the poster child of urbanism in North America. In recent years, through a series of locally grown strategies, Vancouver has consciously willed itself into becoming a model of contemporary city-making. Like the most vivid of dreams, the city is reinventing itself: something curious, perhaps even miraculous, is happening here.

Dream City: Vancouver and the Global Imagination. Incorporated in 1886, Vancouver is a young city, even by New World standards. And to author Lance Berelowitz, the city is full of youthful potential. "If Paris is a movable feast," writes the architect and planner, "then Vancouver is a dream in motion.". It's a telling comparison, since the British-born Berelowitz moved there from the Radiant City.
