Dust (Jacob's Ladder, book 1) by Elizabeth Bear

Against that background, you should take this as a high compliment: the setting of Dust is brilliant. This is, as quickly becomes apparent, a lost generation starship. The Jacob's Ladder is huge, damaged, and fragmented, split by a deep division in the crew that has calcified into essentially warring states.

Review: Dust by Elizabeth Bear

A fascinating world and setting, poorly executed. Elizabeth Bear created a wonderful world in Jacob's Ladder. The idea of the ship, long decrepit in space, with areas that had "gone wild," was a wonderful starting point. Sadly, things went off the rails from there.
