Only a few are disciplined, keep growing, and finish well. Even in the Bible this pattern holds true. He identified 49 Bible leaders we have enough data on to study their life story and only 13 of them finished well. That means for every three or four leaders only one finishes well!

Leaders Who Finish Well - RUNNING STRONG

The phrase “finishing well” means different things to different people. For some, finishing well means ending life with a long, cushy retirement. For those who believe “he who dies with the most toys wins,” finishing well means having lots of stuff. For still others, it means ending with a pain-free death. When we use the phrase, “finishing well,” we mean following Christ to the very end of our lives, finishing his assignments for us and hearing his “well done, good and ...
