Haiku: A Poet's Guide by Lee Gurga - Goodreads

Gurga maintains that it is as important today as in Basho's time to embrace haiku aesthetics. Regarding contemporary haiku: "Whatever its status as literature, haiku requires a special state of mind, not necessarily Zen satori, but a mindset that impels poets to go outside of themselves to achieve an understanding of the 'suchness' or essence of things." (128) Gurga reminds us early on that even experienced poets are still "beginners," so for them as well as novices, it would have been best ...
