This week's lectionary text from Isaiah offers his vision of the "peaceable kingdom" -- a world where "the wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together... the cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together." It's an enticing vision -- but as team member Mary Austin points out in this ...

Of course, if you can't find a Beavertail in town, you could always opt for a doughnut instead. Canadians eat more of the fried dough than any other country, and we have more doughnut shops per capita than anywhere else in the world. If you want an upscale doughnut, like creme brulee or lemon-pistachio, give London's Boxcar Donuts a try.
