It was my first thought, my only thought. With my brethren of the Sundered, I prepared for battle. Battle we did, for the Dark would consume all without our resistance. The voice of the Light was strong and sure. Stars grew, stars died, and in the cadence of His words, we found strength and glory; battle all but consumed us. Yet neither Dark nor Light was victorious. The Sundered fell around me until my Lord could bear their loss no longer.
