That means I did not have to wait an agonizing three years for the sequel to Johnny Be Good. I only had to wait one and a couple of months at the most. Baby Be Mine was everything I had hoped for and more. Paige Toon must have some sort of magic, because I was enthralled, as I have been with ALL of her books.

All in all, Johnny Be Good is an excellent book that's addictive and fun. I find myself already missing the characters, excited for the sequel yet to come. Paige Toon is definitely an up and coming name in chick lit and I hope she breaks into the US market soon (as her books are mostly sold abroad).
