Mothers And Children Feminist Analyses

This feminist exploration of mothers, mothering, and motherhood combines evaluations of empirical and theoretical work with personal narratives by mothers or caregivers. While the authors' analyses yield suggestions for new approaches to motherhood, the narratives vividly demonstrate the relevance of these issues to women's lives.

In both examples below, the mother and child fill almost the entire painting. The unity between the two is enhanced in one case through the colors of the mother's dress and the child's tunic and rosy skin, and in the other case through the matched verticality of the mother's arm, the stripes on her dress, and the child's right arm and legs.
