This is about Naledi His Love. I don't understand Qhawe and Naledi, I find them both a bit extreme. I love their love. I don't get their conflicts, they seem to be blown out of proportion always. They seem to lack communication and maturity . Infact, they don't seem to seek to understand (or know) each other at all; they just each expect what ...

His body is burning hot. I think he's coming down with a fever, but then again, you never know in his case. He used to be a state pathologist, one of the best in the country. And then one afternoon he arrived home, took an axe and butchered his whole family, including the domestic worker. On his "okay" days he tells the story.

Chapter One - Naledi...His Love

Naledi … His Love Chapter One "This ridiculous, there has to be something you can do," What does he mean? He knows I've tried everything. He, of all people, knows how hard I've tried. " He says he made me, that without him I'd still be waiting tables at Wimpy," I say. A part of me believes that, but I was always ambitious, I was never going to end up waiting tables in ...
