Your pet's medical record is the primary way a pet insurance company determines what conditions are pre-existing. As many of you know, I recommend asking the company that you choose to insure your pet to do a medical record review for a detailed look at your pet's past health history.

I hope this run-down helps you to interpret what your vet is doing, and encourages more willingness to ask questions and involve yourself in the process. Doing so will doubtless improve the quality of the physical examination your pet receives. It will also cue your vet in to your expectations for your pet's level of care.
