Poison Study

Poison Study was a grand adventure in the style of the classic adventure novels. The fight scenes are well-written, and the danger elements are exciting and involving. Being Yelena is a dangerous proposition, because Brazell is determined to see her dead for killing his son, and continually uses underhanded methods to do it.

Poison Study (Study, #1) by Maria V. Snyder

Poison study is written in a pretty simplistic straight-forward way - The story starts with Yelena in prison awaiting her execution and as the next person to be executed she was offered the position of food taster for the commander - a job only offered to those with a death sentence due to the constant risk of death by poisoning.
