Saunders is part of the small minority of fiction writers in Poking a Dead Frog, but he's game to let Sacks lead the conversation to fit the book's parameters. It might seem odd to see Saunders's name alongside comedians like Mel Brooks and Patton Oswalt, and television writers like Todd Levin and Megan Amram (although both Levin and Amram also have books out as well), but the conversations and advice pieces are so complementary that going from Marc Maron to Saunders doesn't read ...
