Once (Eve, #2) by Anna Carey

Sixteen years after a deadly virus wiped out most of Earth's population, the world is a perilous place. Eighteen-year-old Eve has never been beyond the heavily guarded perimeter of her school, where she and two hundred other orphaned girls have been promised a future as the teachers and artists of the New America. But the night before g

52 quotes from Anna Carey: 'You can love anyone. Love is just caring about someone very deeply. Feeling like that person matters to you, like your whole world would be sadder without them in it.', 'A relationship between two people can be judged by the list of things unspoken between them.', and 'I loved my mother too,' I said. 'I still do.
