Roads To Mussoorie Ruskin Bond

Roads to Mussoorie is not so much about Mussoorie but about the various treks Ruskin Bond undertook from other places like Dehradun to Mussoorie and that too when he was relatively young which was a long time ago. Mussoorie might be a bustling hill town now. But during Bond's time, it was a picnicking place and not a place of teeming

Ruskin Bond - Wikipedia

Ruskin Bond remains one of my favourite authors for his ability to slow things down and let you immerse yourself in the atmosphere. I've never been north of Mumbai but thanks to him, I know how the trees smell in Mussoorie. Reading one of his stories is like getting settled in a favourite chair, a hot cup of tea, and rainclouds outside the window.
