Silent Sara Alva

I thought Sara Alva's Social Skills was one of the best stories I'd read in a long time, but her latest release, Silent, is in an entirely different category. As I was reading this gripping story, I felt intensely disappointed that the gay fiction genre is so small.

Silent by Sara Alva - Goodreads

Silent is by far not your typical YA gay love story. There are no nerds...there is only the trials, tribulations of a young latino boy in his quest for love set against the backdrop of the biting harshness of reality. Alva firmly plants your feet in this environment from the very beginning to the very end.
