"In the utterly unique and remarkable The Book of X, Sarah Rose Etter takes the surreal and expertly shapes it into a portrait that is as beautiful and compelling as it is horrifying and unbearable... Etter brilliantly, viciously lays bare what it means to be a woman in the world, what it means to hurt, to need, to want, so much it consumes everything."

Lost Roses is the second book of the Lilac Girls series, but chronologically is the prequel to Martha Hall Kelly's The Lilac Girls, a story about the lives of three women during World War II. The connecting thread between these two stories is Eliza Ferriday, a socialite who has travelled to both Paris and St. Petersburg, regularly visiting her close friend Sofya Streshnayva, cousin of the Romanov family.
