This is a very common method of sharing the Christian worldview on social media. It's best done on Facebook, Twitter, or Pinterest. There are tons of Christian pages that regularly put out Christian pictures. They tend to have quotes from Christian leaders, Bible verses, apologetics information, and other content.

Jesus & the Internet: How to Share the Gospel on Social Media

Though the negatives of social media seem to justify abstaining from using it (and for some, it should) there are some gospel positives that come along with our virtual societies. If social media users can press into these realities while straying from some of the pitfalls, social media can actually act as a gospel well we should drink from often.
