That, of course, is the allure of trading for a living: freedom. Freedom to be your own boss, ti work where, and when, you want, and to be financially secure. The reality is that trading for a living is a tough job, one that requires a very specific skill set and risk tolerance that most people don't possess.

Is It Possible to Make a Living Trading Stocks?

Unlike day trading where you can leverage up to 4 times your cash, swing trading will require you to hold positions overnight, so you won't be able to take the plunge. At best, you could hold twice the size of your cash account by using margin. However, I wouldn't recommend taking on that level of risk as you are trading for a living.
